

Header & Navigation Specification

Purpose

The navigation should be clean, minimal and intuitive. Its primary goal is to guide visitors toward booking a Free Growth Analysis.

Desktop Navigation

Logo (top left), Industries, Services, Case Studies, Resources, About, Contact, and a primary CTA button ('Book a Free Growth Analysis') aligned to the top right.

Industries Dropdown

Beauty Industry, Cleaning Companies, followed by future industries (Construction, Landscaping, Dental Clinics, Accounting) marked as 'Coming Soon'.

Services Dropdown

Website Design, Local SEO, CRM, Marketing Automation, AI Chat, Google Ads, Meta Ads, Review Management, Analytics & Reporting. Designed to scale as new services are added.

Sticky Header

Transparent at the top of the homepage. Transitions into a white background with a subtle shadow after scrolling. Smooth 250ms transition.

Mobile Navigation

Full-screen hamburger menu with expandable sections. Order: Home, Industries, Services, Case Studies, Resources, About, Contact, Book a Free Growth Analysis.

CTA Button

Always visible on desktop. On mobile, positioned at the bottom of the navigation menu.

Navigation Behaviour

Highlight the active page and active dropdown item. Every page should be reachable within two clicks.

Search

No global search initially. Consider adding search to the Resources section in the future.

Language Support

Launch with English only. Prepare the navigation to support English and Swedish later with a language switcher beside the CTA.

Client Portal

Do not include a CRM login in the public navigation. Reserve space for a future Client Portal if needed.

Header Design

Height: 80px. White background. Subtle border and shadow while scrolling. Centered navigation and right-aligned CTA.

Typography

Manrope, 16px, weight 600. Framkant Blue for hover and active states. 200–250ms transitions.

Dropdown Design

Approx. 320px wide with 24px padding, 16px rounded corners, soft shadow. Each menu item should include a title and one-line description.

UX Goals

The navigation should communicate that Framkant Nordic specializes in selected industries, provides complete digital growth systems, and encourages visitors to book a Free Growth Analysis.
